Echoes

We, the Senior Class of 1947, do hereby dedicate this annual in memory of one of our classmates, Mavis Bak, who passed away the first part of the school year.

MAYIS BAK

IN MEMORIAM

Mavis Bak, by her strong character and kind personality, left a deep impression upon those who knew her well. In health, as well as in sickness, she was always cheerful and pleasant, with a quiet trust in God she had learned to know. Though handicapped in health, she attained to high standards in many things. May her memory be an inspiration to all who have known her.

CLASS PROPHECY 1947

Ten years have elapsed. As we look back we find the little city of Viborg has grown up and so has the school, which at present is holding a State Teachers Convention. Professor Duane Nielsen is the main speaker for the 1957 Session.

After the convention, Duane dropped over to see an old classmate of his, Merritt Christensen, who has become a noted aviator of the State.

Their conversation leads directly to school days and where all the classmates are and what they are doing.

This is a brief summary of the information which accumulated thro' their conversation.

VERNE ALTSTIEL has settled down to a quiet life of a trucker.

LEO ANDERSON is the mayor of Turkey Ridge with ARDIS CHRISTENSEN as his private secretary.

BERT CHRISTENSEN is now the sole heir of Centerpoint.

MARIAN CHRISTENSEN and Ricky are married and living on a farm near Irene.

LOIS HOLM is now head cashier of the K & K Co.

GLADYS JACOBSEN is married to the landowner from Centerpoint.

HOWARD KOLLARS is veterinarian at Piersen's City.

DONALD LARSON is a specialized mechanic for Model "A" Garage at Hooker.

DARYL LUND is coach at Pumpkin Center.

KERMIT LARSON is a farmer near Irene.

ROBERT MARK'S trucking concern is showing Verne's a lot of competition.

RUEBEN MORCK has been appointed "cop" of Viborg.

PHILIP NELSON has just been ordained minister and will fill the parish at Stanley's Corner.

EDWARD OSTROOT is publishing a daily edition of "The Viborg Enterprise."

AUDREY PETERSEN is studying to be a music teacher at Dana College in Blair, Neb.

CLEO PETERSON is married to a retired gravel hauler and lives in Rapid City.

DALE PETERSON is now the owner of the Hooker Barber Shop.

DEWAYNE PETERSON is Music Professor at Hooker College.

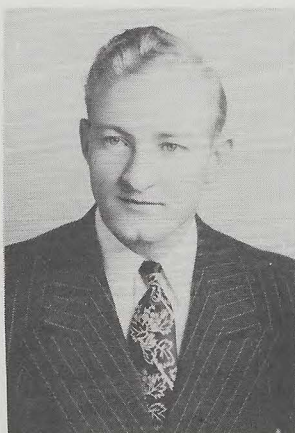

HERBERT PETERSON is a Buick car dealer.

VERONA SIMONSEN is married and living at Centerville (somewhere near the depot).

BETTY SORENSEN is married and living in Sioux Falls.

DONALD WESTERGAARD is the "Singing Cowboy" of the airwaves. You can hear his program over W. N. A. X.

CLASS HISTORY

Five of the Seniors of the graduating class of 1947 have completed all 12 years of school in Viborg. They are Audrey Petersen, Betty Lue Sorensen, Merritt Christensen, Daryl Lund and Herbert Peterson.

The second year was a very quiet one, but during the third year we took in four pupils who have been with us ever since. They are, Cleo Peterson, Dale Peterson, Edward Ostroot and Lois Holm. During this year, Rueben Morck, who started school here, left and attended school in Iowa.

While in the Fourth Grade, a very good looking young lad with black hair entered our school. The girls all sighed when they met Verne Altstiel.

Ardis Christensen and Mavis Bak entered during our fifth year of school here.

There was no new enrollment until in the seventh grade when Marian Christensen and Arleen Madsen came in. Arleen was unable to graduate from the Eighth Grade with the class, due to an illness, which caused her death during the first part of our Freshman year. During this year, Verona Simonsen, who started school here, left to attend country school.

When in the Seventh Grade, this group took an active part in the first banquet held by the Seventh and Eighth Grades. It was held in the school gym under the direction of our teacher Miss Collings. The setting was a circus theme. Merritt Christensen served as toastmaster.

In the Eighth Grade, our second banquet was held. The gym was decorated in a colonial theme.

In the spring, thirteen pupils were assembled for Eighth Grade Graduation. Supt. W. H. Davidsen presented the class with their diplomas.

Then the big day came. Twenty-nine very green Freshmen came nervously up the school steps to start their high school education here. Classes began and what a commotion it was. The girls went with the boys to Shop when they were supposed to be attending Home Economics Class. There were several classes which were not attended that day due to our ignorance. Initiation gave us our legal rights as high school pupils, under the "footsteps" of our upper classmen.

Our Sophomore year was spent rather quietly. We were then just becoming accustomed to being very studious pupils of V. H. S.

Of the many events which took place, during our Junior year, there was the preparation and presentation of the class play, "Ghost Wanted." The proceeds of the play went toward the Junior-Senior banquet which carried out a Star-Light Theme. Robert Mark acted as toastmaster for the evening.

During the first part of our Senior year, one of our classmates, Mavis Bak, passed away.

Highlighting our Senior year was our play, "The Haunted Chair," and the Junior-Senior banquet in the Spring.

Throughout the course of OUR four years of high school, seven students dropped out and four new ones entered. They are Rueben Morck and Howard Kollars who came in during our Sophomore year. During our Junior year, Dewayne Peterson and Kermit Larson entered our class.

Then came baccalaureate and graduation. All twenty-five Seniors had a little sadness in their hearts but a feeling of satisfaction that their goal had been reached.

THE END

CLASS WILL
